- 3 Bouquet's Expedition.—An HISTORICAL ACCOUNT of the EXPEDITION against the OHIO INDIANS in the year 1764, under the command of Henry Bouquet, Esq., Colonel of Foot, including his Transactions with the Indians [by W. Smith], folding map, 2 plans and 2 plates, 4to., hf. morocco, London, for T. Jefferies, 1766, RARE £25

This edition contains two fine historical plates of Indians engraved by Grignon, from the earliest drawings of Benjamin West. These were not in the Philadelphia edition.

“The work relates the details of the first victory gained over Indian forces by English troops after the savages had been taught the use of firearms. Nearly twenty years elapsed before the whites gained another, during which period they suffered dreadful defeats in thirteen battles at the hands of the Indians.”—FIELD.

Colonel Bouquet first laid down the tactics and methods, successfully adopted later by Gen. Wayne, for overcoming the Indians

- 4 Burgoyne (Lieut.-Gen. John) A STATE of the EXPEDITION from CANADA, with a Collection of Authentic Documents, 6 maps and plans (including the 2 rare overlays)—bound with HOWE (Gen. AMERICA—continued.

- 5 Chap-book.—The HAPPY NEGRO: being a True Account of a very Extraordinary Negro in North America, and of an Interesting Conversation he had with a very Respectable Gentleman from England, 8 pp., sm. 8vo., hf. calf, Printed by and for J. Todd, Easingwold [c. 1790] £2

- 7 Donkin (Major) MILITARY COLLECTIONS and REMARKS, front., 8vo., calf, New York, H. Gaine at the Bible and Crown in Hanover Square, 1777 £10

One of the rarest of the revolutionary books. Page 190 has the usual paragraph deleted. The Author proposed to dip arrows in a serum of small-pox to be used against the Americans, and so play on their known terror of that disease.

Includes incidents of war in Canada and the U.S. Siege of Quebec, Bunker's Hill, &c.

The names of the subscribers cover 18 pp. and are grouped under regiments, British and American.

- 8 Doyle (William) Some ACCOUNT of the BRITISH DOMINIONS beyond the ATLANTIC, containing chiefly what is most Interesting and least Known with respect to those Parts; particularly, the Important Question about the North-West Passage is satisfactorily Discussed, large folding map, 8vo., original boards, calf back, London, printed for the Author [1770] £20

Very rare. The Author proposed the peaceable acquisition of North-West America (Alaska) by the English and describes its great possibilities for metals and the fur trade. He proposes to call the region "Hyperborea," suggests "Sebastia" for the whole of North America and other names. He quotes from De Fuentes' Account of his Voyage in 1640 from Lima, Peru, to discover a North-West passage from the Pacific side. The map shows the whole of North America, part of North-East Asia and the Arctic Regions.

- 9 Knox (Capt. John) An HISTORICAL JOURNAL of the CAMPAIGNS in NORTH AMERICA, 1757–60, containing the most Remarkable Occurrences during that Period, particularly the Two Sieges of Quebec, &c., large folding map, and portraits of Amherst and Wolfe, 2 vols, 4to., ORIGINAL WRAPPERS, UNCUT, in cl. case, London, 1769 £26

Complete with the 18 maps, which are often missing.

The Author describes, with great detail, the campaigns of Washington, Braddock and Johnson against the French; Montcalm's capture of Oswego; the reduction of Canada, Louisbourg, Guadeloupe, Martinico, the Havana and the retaking of Newfoundland.

The last chapter deals with Bouquet's expedition against the Indians.

Mante was assistant engineer at the siege of Havana and Major of Brigade in 1764.

The military maps are of special interest and include Fort Beau Sejour, Louisbourg, Ticonderoga, Quebec, Havana, Newfoundland, &c.

Father Venegas derived his history from relations composed by the missionaries in California, and sent to the Provincial at Mexico. His work is undoubtedly the most faithful narration we possess regarding the original condition of the Indians of any part of North America, with the history of their progress towards civilisation and christianity.

If Murdoch and James Alexander work the quarry properly (which you must see to) I allow them to raise stones for their addition to their houses, but no more. Letters of Thomas Day, Author of "Sandford and Merton," rarely occur for sale.

"To get a steady hand and skillful Eye,
Young Surgeons on the poor their lances try,
And if with them their practice should succeed;
They may a Lord, may Ev'n a Lady bleed;
Thus We, so difficult the Acting Trade is Before we risk'd our fame with Lords and Ladies
On John, Tom, Will and Susan try'd our Art
And they poor Souls were melted to ye Heart."

Whilst writing this manuscript Garrick made extensive alterations and additions.

26. Johnson (Samuel, 1709-84) AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED, 2 pp., large 4to., Ashbourn, Sept. 4, 1784, to John Hoole, a fine letter, WRITTEN WITHIN THREE MONTHS OF HIS DEATH £40

Our acquaintance has now subsisted long, and our recollections of each other involves a great space, and many little occurrences which melt the thoughts to tenderness. . . . It has pleased God to grant me a very wonderful recovery . . . when I came hither I slept much in a chair, but for some days past, having rested in the night I have been more capable of enjoying the day. . . . I hear from Dr. Brocklesby and Mr. Ryland, that the club is not crowded. I hope we shall enliven it when winter brings us together."

- 27 Johnson (Samuel, 1709-84) AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED, one p., 4to., Oct., 1765, to Charles Burney, Esq., in Poland Street (small portion of one corner just affecting date at foot missing, the letter itself intact and a fine specimen of a Johnson epistolatory effort) £20

This letter has evidence of having passed through Fanny Burney's hands.

- 30 Richardson (Samuel) A VERY FINE A.L.S., 3 pp., 4to., London, Jan. 10, 1754, to Miss Highmore £20

"Strange is it to you my dear Miss Highmore, that the Title of a Wit when applied to a Woman, should be used as an opprobrious term. The Wits have, in general, so greatly misbehaved themselves for more than a Century past, that, I think the Men who are called Wits have no great reason to be thankful for the compliment. I wish we could substitute for it in the character given by those who speak of our dearest Friends, Prudent, Since that word implies wisdom and may include cheerful and inoffensive wit, &c."

- 31 ——— AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED, from Urania Johnson (one of the Author's numerous female admirers), to Samuel Richardson, asking him in affected terms to "give Distinction to a Cottage [opposite the New Bun-House, Lambeth Road], where every inhabitant is Mr. Richardson's most humble servant," &c., one p., 4to., Aug. 16, 1756, ENDORSED ON THE BACK IN RICHARDSON'S OWN HAND £1 10s

'Tis but a Neighbour's Fare.

- 33 Southey (Robert) FINE AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED, 4 closely written pages, 4to., Burton, July 19, 1797, to John May, Esq., giving intimate details of his life, and his quarrel with Coleridge £5

"... At this time my acquaintance with Coleridge commenced . . . and resolved to go to America and attempt to establish a better system. We hoped to raise a sufficient sum amongst us . . . I went to Bristol to Coleridge and supported myself and almost him I may say, for what my labours earned were as four to one. I gave lectures, I wrote indefatigably . . . I add to this that my opinion of Coleridge was not what it had been, for by long living with him I knew much of his character . . . our arrears were paid with 20 guineas which Cottle advanced as the copyright price of the poems which were published not till after my return from Lisbon, during all this Coleridge was to all appearance as he has ever been toward me, but I discovered that he has been employing every possible calumny against me and represents me as a villain."

BELIEVED TO BE UNPUBLISHED.

"... 'Yu fright me in not saying a Word of Mr Gilmore's affairs: you may be as soft and civil and generous, and fond, &c., as yu please to people who hate me, I will and shall have it in my power (if I live) to cast off all Acquaintance (but a husband) who slight and despise me.' . . ."

- 35 Sterne (Laurence) PORTION of an AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED, 4 pp. (the first two pages and a further five lines on pages 3 and 4 are copies of the original letter), 4to., Coxwold, 1760 £5

The signature and the above quotation is in Sterne's handwriting.

- 36 Vanbrugh (Sir John, Dramatist) AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED, 3 pp., folio, Whitehall, Nov. 29, 1719, to Jacob Tonson [the Publisher], AN EXTREMELY INTERESTING LETTER, CHARACTERISTIC OF THE MANNERS OF THE PERIOD, with AN INSERTION IN THE HAND OF HIS WIFE (slight repair at folds and fore-edge, seven terminal letters being filled in by hand) £6

"I have only now to tell you my wife returns your Compliments. She says she's sorry she has not a sister for you: but she knows them that have and if you'll give her a commission she'll answer for't, to provide at least as well for you as she has done for me."

He concludes with a characteristic gibe at the Duchess of Marlborough.

VANCOUVER IN NOOTKA SOUND.

- 37 Vancouver (George) A VERY FINE A.L.S., written during his famous voyage to the Pacific Coast of N.A., containing news of the discoveries, 2½ pp., 4to., "DISCOVERY," NOOTKA SOUND, October 2nd, 1794 £75

"... We arrived here this day month all in high health and spirits having truly determined the non existence of any water communication between this & the opposite side of America within the limits of our investigation beyond all doubt or disputation hence I expect no further detention in this hemisphere not doubting but the business respecting these territories must have been settled a sufficient length of time for a vessel to have arrived by whom we might be relieved and proceed on our route towards Old England in hopes to partake of some shair (sic) in the glorious and honorable cause her fleets and armies are at present engaged in, but in these expectations we were disappointed, no vessel having arrived from England to that effect nor have I received any information in answer to my despatches sent home by Mudge & Broughton as I expected by way of New Spain but are still in expectations of some news from that quarter as a paquet was waiting at St. Bless to forward the despatches respecting the Restitution of this country, &c., but has not yet arrived. Thus you see my good friend I am once more entrapped in this infernal Ocean, and am totally at a loss to say when I shall be able to quit it . . .

yours with great truth of Friendship,

GEO. VANCOUVER."
